Thread: [Looking for people to wear my signature. \[\$2-10 per month in crypto\]](#)

Hello everyone! As I'm new here, I would love to promote my service and I believe a great way to do that would be to hire people to wear my signature.

You would be advertising for Write Wave, a freelance writing service:

I am willing to pay on a monthly period. Please private message me your price and we can negotiate. I'll be paying $2-$10 PayPal per month depending on your post activity, rank, etc.

I will be keeping track and taking off the signature before the time agreed upon is forbidden, a scam report will be opened.

Hey zSerity i could do this for you but not for PayPal- maybe BTC or CashApp and probably not for the month either unless we negotiated the price/length especially since it's going to be holidays/Christmas almost around this time next month and with the new award coming out for that- I'm sure we'll end up having to make a ton more posts for it possibly so that means a ton more visibility so shoot me a PM and we can work something out if you're interested
