10 days for 3k? Cute. I made that overnight without ewhoring, or doing anything illegal and will have no trouble with taxes or using this money to buy a house. I will eagerly await your ebook or mentoring services being sold here because you have so much free time to help others out since you're so busy making 10k a month and still need the extra income because ?..

I can tell you one thing. I'm not making threads about how much I make without any proof whatsoever to get kids to look up to me and then offering my paid services to said kids. If that isn't enough information, I don't know what is.
