SIM-1866423 - November 28, 2021, 12:12 am

No doubt metaverse will be next huge thing so(maybe already is ?) .. yea i started to invest into metaverse projects and looking new ones.

My bag is ; BLOK,DAR,BOSON,HERO,TITA,IMX

Trying to buy EFI as well.Sold SHOE yesterday because it was performing really bad.So can everyone share or shill me their bags ? I will invest into metaverse projects at least 1m$

What about POLC? Seems like an interesting game , they are trying to make it similar to GTA and the mcap is quite low at the moment.

Yin Yang - November 28, 2021, 5:34 am

I was able to swing blok. I might buy AI/Hero once I see a dip opportunity

Have you looked into efinity (EFI)?

Zher0 - November 28, 2021, 10:47 am

EFI, ELMON, and possibly metahero.

One of the few Metaverse projects I am looing forward to is Mirandus.. a huge MMORPG with a real economy. Gala Games will be stress testing Mirandus early version this month.. and if you own an Exempler.. (NFT Character/skin) you can earn some of the ingame currency/material Materium. ;) I will be playing with a few... £££$$$

UNKNOWN1 - December 7, 2021, 2:52 pm

Why nobody mentioned $SAND? , isn't a metaverse crypto?

Good point.. Sand Box is very good. Roblox on the blockchain basically.. so users create Voxel NFT's and can sell them. Create games from them etc.. pretty cool. Going to get my kids playing it instead of Roblox..

Check out splinterlands, my friend dropped $100k into this project earlier this year. He says this is gonna explode.

Splinterlands have a lot of daily users.. it is going so well. I sold all the cards I purchased a while back for a nice profit recently.. they sell so fast! It is not my type of game.. (similar to Gods unchained) hence why I sold out.. but I still stake on the platform. good APY..

If you don't have UOS on your list you will be left behind.

cryptostoo - December 7, 2021, 4:12 pm

UOS (Ultra) looks ok.. I am still not sure how they claim to have their own blockchain, I am fairly sure it is EOS tech.. like WAX uses a mod version. Many modded versions have emerged and they are not very decentralised imo. I could be very wrong?

I prefer GALA because I own a few soft nodes.. and have watched the network grow (node sales over the last 18 months) and I know the GALA Chain will be amazing.. using IPFS tech.. powering the games on the chain ;)

I really love this projects! it looks like something that i dreamed since long time and I've been investing on it, BUT.....when i read all negative comments on their social network, I'm afraid their team is not really strong.

However i will keep investing because i love the Idea and good Ideas can change the world!

While it's not focused on the metaverse, UNIQ is implementing their wearable NFT's into Decentraland. They also just added an LP to Matic network and should be finished integrating matic to their platform today. I've posted about it in the cryptocurrency sub-forum if you'd like to take a look. Very interesting.

Decentral games (DG), first casino metaverse, the ones who have played poker know the money it moves, the idea sounds fugging fantastic imho.

Hi,

Great to hear that you're interested in exploring new metaverse projects! There are so many exciting developments happening in this space, and I'm sure you'll find something that piques your interest.

Some popular metaverse projects to check out include Decentraland, Somnium Space, The Sandbox, and Cryptovoxels. Each of these platforms offers a unique virtual world experience, with different focuses on user-generated content, gaming, and social interaction.

You might also want to keep an eye on new projects that are currently in development, such as Mirandus, a blockchain-based fantasy world, and Ember Sword, a decentralized MMORPG. These projects are generating a lot of buzzes and could be worth checking out.

Remember to do your research before investing your time or money in any metaverse project. Look into the project's team, community, and roadmap to ensure that it aligns with your interests and goals. Happy exploring!
