Thread: VPS Provider with BTC?

Simplicity! - December 1, 2021, 4:11 pm

I know and have a list of most of them, however would love to see your personal opinion on the best vps provider that is payable with cryptocurrency?

SeaTurtle - December 1, 2021, 8:49 pm

i was just looking for one to use for email. currently using [censored]. need about 5$/ month and they accept crypto. only problem is that its still a little kyc by requiring a credit card or paypal info before u can send crypto to the account

can you share where I can buy ubuntu VPS with fast MB

Effexion - February 1, 2022, 6:52 am

I'm pretty sure the host in my signature accept BTC. I can highly recommend them too.

Do your server allow scanning?

I'm not happy with such customers. But yes depends on the service.

Only DEDICATED SERVER. <https://Hostslick.com/dedicated-servers>

VPS not. Because as said above. You are going to get terminated on VPS within 24h.
We dont want that everyone paying a few bucks doing it. More and more will come.
We dont like that.

So short: We dont really like it but yes its allowed on dedicated servers.

i think is spoofing the ip you are asking for. maybe the seller maybe in good shoe to answer this. But i do that through code.

if their are other ways am interested to know.
