TF Fun Friday's - Hacktionary

IT HAS STARTED! CHECK THE COMMENTS FOR THE CURRENT PROCESS OF THE GAME.

When and where will the game start?
Today at 9 PM GMT+1 - within THIS thread.

How does the game work?
We'll be playing the forumized version of Pictionary. The game is quite simple. The game host will post an unfinished drawing of a randomized word. If 1.5 hours have passed, or after 5 incorrect guesses, a new picture of the same word will be posted with more detail to it, until someone guesses the correct word. If nobody has the correct guess after 5 tries, we will continue to the next word and no points will be given for this one.

- There will be a total of 10 rounds
- Every correct answer gives 1 point
- The first one to post the correct answer will receive the point, subsequent correct answers won't get any points

What can we win, and are we allowed to team up?
1st place: 7k Bytes
2nd place: 3.5k Bytes
3rd place: 1.5k Bytes

You are allowed to team up, but the prize money will be split across your team, and you can only qualify for one place. If you want to team up, send me and those you are teaming up with a PM, and let those you add confirm in a reply you are indeed in the same team.

Any questions?
Feel free to post in the thread, or hit me up in PM/Convo. If information is missing, or anything is unclear, I'll update the thread accordingly.

See you there, and have fun!

We kind of made a mistake with timezones. We're putting the game on pause right now and waiting for our friends from across the Atlantic to get online!

The correct answer was ticket! We're revamping this idea so it's more fun for the community. I'll close this thread for now, more coming (very) soon!
