Thread: DWC - Heieke

UnoOne - December 9, 2021, 11:11 am

User id: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1090293>

The user was trying to sell siatama on this thread

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?pid=61187655#pid61187655>

I was trying to sell at a discounted price and the replies he gave are not convincing

His previous threads too look suspicious

May be the funds are coming from phished wallets that he does not want the transactions to trace back to him

When I asked to send me his wallet address to check if what he is telling is true,he immediately closed the thread and said he has already sold and when I asked for proof ,he refused to provide any explanation

May be he will argue that he has not scammed anyone,but trying to sell stolen/hacked funds is illegal

If the user is legit he can post proofs here or to any mod

Till then everyone ,please DEAL WITH CAUTION

You're mad because someone chose not to deal with you? Bro, get a grip and move on. If anything this thread is a clear reason for someone to not deal with YOU. Weirdo

LOL

Are you his multi id or what ?

Read the original thread,I was asking him questions and then wallet address ,on buying pretext to see if he has really got the tokens from someone else ,and can back up his claims.

He then instantly posted that he has sold the tokens..(with in mins) and no proof for it why are so much pissed with my thread..? you even gave me a neg rep for no reason !

Now go and -- yourself !

Who are you to question someone else and their transaction? They don't have to prove anything to you. Your sense of entitlement is disgusting. Again, get a grip. You need a sense of reality. After reviewing your posts, you've clearly had quite the run ins with DWC situations, huh!?! All the more reason for everyone to steer clear from ever dealing with you.

LOL..someone advocating for a thief !

Buying stolen goods is illegal .Period

every buyer has right to know the source ,right to do due diligence

I have every right to question and seek answers.If you have any problems with that,you can ignore ,move on and post your sh!t somewhere else

If mods thinks this thread is not appropriate ,they will remove this.If the user thinks I am falsely accusing him,he will defend with proofs

BTW ,I contacted the user for more info,before posting this thread.He refused and said he is NOT scammed anyone ON THIS FORUM

You're assuming and accusing without any proof because someone didn't want to prove themself to a random time wasting retard on the internet. A thief? You're pretty much calling him a scammer without him ever scamming. At this point staff definitely can get involved. Good luck, I highly advise everyone DWC when having any business or social relations with you.

You have crossed your limits and gone personal

I have already told you to leave the thread to post your sh!t some where else or report the thread to mods

I don't have time replying to idiots,retards and autistic kids.Don't quote me again

If something is suspicious,I have right to post DWC and I have not called the user a scammer,but may be a thief .

When he posting on public forums,buyers have right to ask for proofs and if someone is not ready to prove,he should be selling here in first place

Read this thread couple times, and I have yet to find the part where you show proof to back up your claims UnoOne .

Do you have any actual proof other than "maybe", "possibly", and "he's not giving the addy" ?

I don't need the address, he can just prove what he claimed

The whole point of this thread is to alert people.I am not after to get the user banned or brand him as scammer

This is not a dispute thread.If anyone wants to use any of this info to do due diligence ,they can or ignore and move

And can you elaborate on why does he need to prove it while you're the one posting this thread without a single proof to back up any of your arguments.

Calm down bud. You posted this thread in a public forum, except people to voice their opinion too. You have the right point out if something is suspicious, and other people also have the right to question your claims too.
