What are the biggest what ifs in your life?

Nate - December 10, 2021, 5:58 pm

Probably what if I stayed in the dorms, and what if I stay as an on campus student

Def Bitcoin related, what if I kept all the bitcoins I ever owned in cold storage and never put them on exchanges that got hack, traded them, bought things with them etc

Cliché tho so I dont really think about it. Move forward, hindsight is 20/20

Ehh, I don't like this thread idea. Live in the moment and don't dwell on things.

Professional27 - December 10, 2021, 7:45 pm

What if you never started this thread? Ever think about that Spiku?

Charybdis - December 10, 2021, 10:23 pm

Definitely, what if I invested in crypto early....

Yeah I felt a gut reaction of I don't want to think about this.

Yeah, this is right, try not to worry too much about things you can't change. Anyone could be successful with hindsight, ya know, what if I'd picked the correct lottery numbers last week? But I didn't, so, onwards.

Aside from financial decisions... I wonder what my life would have been if I never went to / graduated college.

LOUD - December 11, 2021, 8:11 am

My biggest is that I get injured often and I always wonder what if I didn't? Where would I be at in my life without these physical restrictions?

BrainX Labs - December 11, 2021, 8:14 am

What if I bought BTC in 2010 and put it in my wallet till today.

I wish I would have done something like this so badly

First off, I have no regrets but sometimes I do wonder what if I had never gone down the path of destruction with alcohol and hard drugs in my late teens/early 20s.

Crippy - December 25, 2021, 7:21 pm

"what if I invested in btc back in the days" yeh i wish.

Mozart - December 25, 2021, 9:18 pm

"What if" questions have been a common philosophical debate with me for over a decade now, and there are so many that I cannot even begin to give examples of the leading ones by comparison to the others as they are all as valid as the prior and after.
