you can start making 1 drawing per day , watch bunch of youtube tutorials .
or you can offer a cheap service here , making money while practicing motivates you more .

Very nice work! Alot of detail in the design. First I didn't saw the person laying but after looking twice a saw a person standing on a other person. Nice skills and artwork!

Terro - January 22, 2022, 6:09 am the drawing is good! Just one thing if you don't look at the picture intuitively at first.

Looks good.

Not sure if quality problems are because of the file format of the forum post.

The original is probably better. Keep up the good work.

How was this made btw?

Have you ever thought about using Procreate? Sorry if it's a dumb question, I'm pretty sure Photoshop works like a charm but I feel like Procreate has way more features for sketching
