Thread: Biggest Pet Peeves?

LOUD - December 13, 2021, 4:56 pm

So I am sure there is an out-dated thread out there like this already but...

What is your BIGGEST pet peeve(s) in life?

Mine would have to be people saying 'axed' instead of 'asked'... It never used to bother me but everyone at my new job seems to say it and it pierces my ears everytime I hear it.

Another big one would be people driving with road rage. Just relax and get to where you're going safely... ???

Bad drivers.

People who use a lot of slang

As a welder/ construction crew - those who don't know how to read a tape measure.

People who don't know the difference between you, you're, and your. Too, to, and two, there, their, and they're. Ect

Not a pet peeve, but the words "unequivocally bussin' " has a nice ring to it and I feel like it should be an option when you leave a popularity rating.

We can have split 50/50 joint custody of cred if this gets implemented. ?

MesaGFX - December 13, 2021, 5:30 pm

People walking slow

This annoys me so fcking much

I can't stress enough how much it annoys me when people do annoying things intentionally. I'm going to start stepping on people heels.

Or just shoving them outta my fkn way ?

bevc - December 14, 2021, 5:50 am

People who bite their nails in front of others - and I don't mean as a nervous habit, I mean people who sit there chomping on them, making the sound and everything. It mings me out.

Tru.

Any other pet peeves, users?

Rabbit - December 15, 2021, 7:42 pm

Gotta go with people who bite their nails or chew with their mouth open

Crippy - December 16, 2021, 4:21 am

When people look from their corner of their eye when your walking up to them and then they act like they didn't know you were walking up to them

Smexy - December 16, 2021, 6:05 am

I really hate it when people act high class or rude towards me when they don't know me, it makes me wanna ignore said person and their existance.

Yea this annoys me too at times. Especially when someone tries to speak condescendingly towards me.... ??

LOUD - December 18, 2021, 8:47 am

Bumping this, curious to see what else annoys users :D

eupraxia - December 18, 2021, 9:02 am

I really dislike when people tell me things about themselves that aren't true. Especially at the bar. I don't think your scrawny ass beat up a group of dudes, but I can't not be polite. Hit them with the "wow that's crazy."

Yes! Lying in general usually drives me mad because I have an abnormally strong ability to see thru people's BS and the worst is lying drunk fuckers.

Yes. It is extremely obnoxious. I just don't have it in me to just be like, "fuck off."

Me neither, I usually nod my head and ignore them. ?

bevc - December 18, 2021, 9:29 am

One thing that really fugging annoys me from people is entitlement. Drives me nuts. When people act as if you, or anyone else, owes them something just because they exist.

Example, I have a cousin, he was at a family get together a few years ago, and my sister got really pissed off at him, because he kept cadging drinks from other people, but never offered to pay for a round himself - and he's got plenty of money.

Another example, I used to know a guy who expected his girlfriend to suck his d, but refused to go down on her because he 'didn't like it'.

And so on.

Charybdis - December 18, 2021, 10:48 am

When people chew with their mouth open. Annoying af
