Thread: [\[Official Group\] The Backroom - Announcement & Information \[Exclusive\]](#)

The Backroom is a tight-knit community of individuals looking to build connections and generate income online. We share ideas and provide important information for our members to generate income.

One of my favourite quotes I saw, which is hugely true in our current era:
"Being in the right groupchat can change your life."

As a hopeful teenager several years ago I got my start on HF, which genuinely influenced who and where I am today in a significant way.... How? The people I met in groups on HF and the information I learned there which was extremely valuable. I hope to recreate this today and have the same community atmosphere that other groups like Panthers embodied.

For a forum built around the rise of blockchain and crypto, I feel the HF community is undereducated to the huge opportunities for profit around NFTs, crypto and more.
The concept on HF that you will never recoup your buy-in amount changes today.

Membership to the backroom is available via buy-in

PM/Convo if interested. Lifetime - $100

- 5.) Be nice to one another in the Group. This is for on-site as well as off-site contact. Any abuse of the group spot will lead to immediate removal from the Group.
