Thread: Recommend me a GOOD E-Whoring Mentor

Lyrice - December 16, 2021, 4:02 am

Struggling a bit with E-Whoring, so looking for a mentor.

I'd love if the start-up fee was rather low, and I could pay a bigger price just after getting started.

I've spent $135 on E-Whoring already, a shit ebook, verifications etc., so that's my reason for not wanting to go all-out right away ?

E-Whoring is something I've done in the past, so I'm not a complete noob at it, but a lot of things changed since I last did it about 6 years ago.

You dont need a mentor, what you need is a good traffic sources. In ewhoring traffic source is the most important, and you just need to pretend a girl who are flirting with horny guys.

Get a girl who will support your ewhoring buy her photos, pay her to verify things on dating apps. Tell them to pay every photos and videos.

Still sadly a bit too pricey for my liking, but thanks :)
