Thread: Where to get a USA credit card for online purchases?

I'm in Canada but I need to buy some services that require a USA credit card. They check your zip code for verification so I can not just enter my Canadian credit card to buy it.

Is there a place I can buy a USA visa gift card or real card that can work for online purchases where you can set your Billing address/zip code as a USA address?

Also it needs to be a card that works with subscription services because I have noticed some cards get rejected by services that automatically renew.

Thanks.

But is that simply a Canadian credit card with a Canadian billing address but charged in USD?

I'm not sure if that will work for me since I need a true USA credit card with a USA billing address and zip.
