He is a scammer. His impending rebuttal will deceptively read something like this "THIS GUY HAS NEGATIVE REP, AND HE WAS TOO STUPID TO SEND ME A VALID PACK FOR TRAFFIC" You would be foolish to lend credence to his deceitful refutation.

I was only testing out his traffic so I could see whether his $350 [BRAND NAME REMOVED] traffic method is workable. I paid him $50 for 100. After fiddle-fucking with several unsuccessful attempts to generate traffic with a girl he claims is "too ugly to generate traffic with" which is obviously untrue (model seen here: <https://imgur.com/a/DG0ODx3>), he went on to insult me with passive-aggressive questions such as "how old are you?", "do you even live in the US? (implying nobody from US would find her attractive)".

He was never able to deliver my 100 adds that I paid for because I am "too stupid to use a hot model". I sent him 5 different packs, 4 of which, I know have earned a lot of money from my own experience. All 5 were too ugly. His method obviously does not work.

PM me for chatlogs if you actually need further proof. This guy is actually really low IQ, it will be nice for a good laugh but not worth wasting your time with him.

Took a little bit to get this all configured but here we are. A full HTML page of the full chatlog. It's long AF, but I'm just making sure everything I said can be verified if someone is actually foolhardy enough to take the time. Everything I stated is true, and is demonstrated in this chatlog above.

I offered this guy full refund and he did not want to accept the refund. Since the beginning of the deal I told him that if I couldn't get the traffic I would refund because his models for real are 100% not attract. PM and i will send pictures of all models he showed me.

He is just being childish, he asked him if he wants to get 41 adds and over and he said yes, he got the account and he is now here saying that I am a scammer?? When a literally told him I could fully refund him or give him the 41 adds if he wants. I never insulted him, otherwise i told him that he is my customer and I will treat him as my king. I tried solving this a lot of ways, I tried creating a lot of traffic for him but his models are really ugly. I spent over $50 with sms and i was still helping him when I was not profitable anymore and I still offered full refund.

Edit: I also gave him free services such as 30k snap score boost and others stuff just so he could feel comfortable with the purchase. Btw, here is the model he said he made a lot of bank with: (

he is just mad cause i didn't sell the method to him

Also as you guys can see, I was the one who asked to make a contract, so if I was to "scam" him I would never ask for that, plus he just told me rn he is still getting adds so I don't have to refund anything for two reasons.

- 1) He chose account over $50 BTC
- 2) He is still getting ads and he already got a meetup

BiieiCunha , why were you so persistent on having the contract completed before delivering the account with adds? That's not at all how business is conducted. I'd say this whole thing was very childish from both parties, especially towards the end, but the seller is clearly in the wrong. If you tested 3 different packs and you weren't able to get 99+ likes, it is clearly your [BRAND NAME REMOVED] process as opposed to the model being ugly, and as somebody from the US, I agree the black-haired chick shown in the chats isn't worthy of the model tag, but you could clearly earn with her, or just about any female.

41 adds is not 100 adds. He sold me 100 adds and admittedly delivered 41. Case closed lmao. He delivered this while being insanely dramatic and rude, like this dude is actually mentally ill.

I'm glad this is clear to the very first person to investigate lol. He made me deliver him 5 separate models, and only used the first one he said was too ugly, so he wasn't even trying with the other 4. He just wanted to have an excuse why his method was bunk.

As you can see I offered refund. And I was persistent to have it completed before handing the account because it was not completed and I knew he would use that against me. The most important part is that I offered refund multiple times and he did not want it

The fact that he thinks that putting in the bio "yellow ghost app" is a method makes me wonder who is selling this shit for 450$?

Also I had worse models to work with and they did just fine but [BRAND NAME REMOVED] is very strict regarding using the same pics more than once so it's always better to use fresh ones because people who are adding you from [BRAND NAME REMOVED] usually tend to forget who\where they added you from so as long as your SE skills are on point you shouldn't have any problem whatsoever.

Now he has the account with probably already 100 adds and he chose the account over the refund. I don't understand why he is trying to dispute this when I already cancelled the contract.

I never said that putting "yellow ghost app" on bio was a method. Don't take words out of my mouth. I OFFERED A REFUND AND IN THE SAME TIME I DELIVERED 200 ADDS TO ANOTHER GUY SO IT WAS NOT MY METHOD !!! Putting "yellow ghost app" on bio it just a funny creative way to use your bio, not a "method"

I never said that having "yellow ghost app" on bio was my method. And if you buy the method from me you'll see I never mention it on the method because it is not part of the method.

He's honestly pretty good at social engineering. He actually messaged me from a separate discord just to convince me to send him back the snap, he has sent a ton of low quality traffic to it to make it seem like there is now 100 adds. I am honestly LMAO at how much effort he put into this lol.

I NEVER messaged you from a separate discord. Before accusing me get proofs !!! And it didn't even send more traffic to it, do you think I'm dumb to send more traffic to your account ? grow up !! It wasn't working first time why would it work now ??

I meant that I didn't even send more traffic to it. You are having traffic for an account on [BRAND NAME REMOVED] which I don't have access anymore because I deleted the instance on bluestacks before even knowing it was working.
