I am looking for a solid partner with a good business plan. I currently run one business making 20k a month but am interested in stepping up my income. Anyone with a solid idea and knowledge to put that plan in action and has the motivation to follow through with DM ME. I am open ears to everything.

Send me your telegram or Discord in convo/PM, I may have a good opportunity for you that's pretty big.

All I need is an eBay account or any other similar site accounts, but we can talk privately if you have this.

To OP: depends on what kind of business category you want to deep dive on. Such as marketing or crypto or whatever that is you are interested with. Its big broad world of biz out there.
