Happy holidays and a fine Christmas everyone ?

A few days ago I received my new gun(s). It was quite a hassle with the paperwork and background checks and overall it took longer than expected.

Requested my permit in late June received it now so about 6 months.

If you're interested in that story I can elaborate on it a bit further if requested ?

This is my collection now:Marlin XT-22 22LR

Star 30M 9mm

Browning buck mark 22LR

CZ527 222 rem FS

CZ455 Evolution 22LR

Marlin 336C 30-30

Ruger Precision 22LR (NEW)

Dan Wesson .357 6inch barrel (NEW)

And I'm planning to buy another one it's just a healthy collection I'm a collector I do not have a problem ??

Enough talking here are the pictures ?

In Texas the process is pretty easy, take a class, get fingerprinted, and a quick background check. Took me about 2 months to get my license in the mail. Yet, the license is pretty much useless now other than quick gun purchases and traveling to reciprocal states.

That's very impressive. I can't own any because I am a felon now. So I am jealous
