I'm not going to give you a negative because I don't like to get them myself, but this guide sucks, and where is the free battle pass in the video I just watched?

It's not a guide, but really more a giveaway as well as a reveal of what the battle pass contains.

I don't care about the 15 bytes but what he's doing is literally false advertising, he's most likely just promoting his youtube channel or whatever is up with that shitty fake giveaway he's hosting.

Yeah I was pretty upset about it myself. I felt stupid as hell for actually thinking it was going to be legit, but yes please do me and probably all of us all a favor. ?

Thnaks for pre-judging my giveaway and not giving a fair chance to prove that its legit.....hats off people

What is making you upset?? Someone somewhere else conned you/faked it, that means everyone running giveaway is fake???? what the heck!!!

This is my first Giveaway, there might be many mistakes, but I ask you [HF members] to tell/help me to fix such mistakes.

Lets make it more interesting, I will post the winners here!!!! on HF.
Anyone taking part can post their codm uid here (there will be a few winners from hf as well)

-If that doesn't satisfy you people, god knows what will, I also welcome any suggestions/advice to make it better/genuine.

About the battlepass: The End Date is 31Jan 2022, The battle pass of the Running season of that time will be given.

Thank you very much for sharing this!

"Free Call of Duty Mobile 440CP", that is the title of your thread. And listen, if it were just the title I would have just said "well clickbait title, fuck this guy" and moved on personally. But nowhere in the thread does it say that this is actually a giveaway with multiple contestants, you only find that out once you buy the attachment.

So we are not pre-judging, I don't think you know what that means. We're judging what you did, which is promoting your dumb giveaway under the impression that ANYONE could get what is mentioned in the thread, am I wrong to say that is shitty? It's objectively true.

Another thing that I would like to point out, this is a giveaway yet the section of the thread is not the one for giveaways, you are literally breaking rules here.
No need to be rude mate

as i said its my first one so there must be mistakes

but I am thankful to you for pin pointing my mistakes.

Sorry but there actually is a need to be rude when you try to play us like fools, we ain't stupid.

Your points are right and I already thanked you for this.....I did not put too much thought into it earlier, and at the time of posting it felt right. However, just after reading yours and Jcole's post I realized that I made a mistake. But I didn't find any link to edit the actual post. And anyone can see that actual post and the first reply is posted by the same person, its not my fault if you didn't see who posted the first reply, and I didn't lie in the reply, what I intended to post is 100% legit and working, just I posted it the wrong way, which I have realized now.

On the other hand you are bitching around like I have committed some criminal offence, I was wrong earlier and made a mistake, but I'm sorry bitch but you are wrong that I deliberately did that, and you are stretching it too long now.
