Your odds are looking good. They're picking two winners and you're the only one nominated. By my math that means there is a 200% chance you'll win as of this moment.

Nuts - January 11, 2022, 9:05 pm

I don't know any grey users. I don't give them a shot on the forums, I believe they're all multis of banned people.

Everyone starts out as a grey user. lol Buuuuuut you do sort of have a point because dammmmn a lot of grey users are getting closed, and I guess probably a lot of that is because they are multis, although not all of those accounts would be closed for that reason. I guess the majority may be.

It's sad to see joe, i believe people will only join giveaways for their own gain not to help someone else win something.
