what do you mean no illegal shit ?

You are installing our virus on someone else's PC

Are we getting a consent from the pc's you installing our shit on ?

Explain that please xKingTelium - January 12, 2022, 4:23 am

I am interested. What makes this shop different from others on HF?

Do not message with help asking to commit a crime. We are simply supplying. Should've made that more clear.

Regards, Sauce.

Yes, I can do that no problem. Just depends on what country you want as far as the discount goes.

I recommend contacting me through the second Telegram or Discord listed in the flyer for a fast response,

Regards, Sauce.

What separates us from other install shops is the following;

Fast Services - We aren't here to waste your time and make you wait longer than you have to. How it works is you pay, you give us your stub and we execute. We do it in a timely and reasonable fashion.

Competitive & Affordable Pricing - If you look at other botshops our prices are competing against their pricing and we tried to make it as cheap as possible.

Friendly Customer Support - We promise to answer any questions and no questions will go unanswered. We will do everything we can to solve issues that you may face and will not stop until its been resolved or we have come to common grounds on a resolution.

Country Targeting - If you have a specific country you want your bots to come from we can make it happen or attempt to. We have bots from most countries.
