SIM-2501407 - January 21, 2022, 8:33 pm

Atropos

It's the name of one of the Fates from greek mythology. She represents the humans life line being cut - death being sealed.

My own twist, made up word, is combining Atropos with Metropolis. Atropolis. The city of death.

Always been memorized by ancients religions; stories bring you into the lore. This is one of the things i prefer reading about than watching. I think most movies are meh... sort of boring and not targeted for me.

My mind paints a picture of cut scenes; and i let my imagination go crazy. It's like the OG magicians; making the earth tides rise and whatnot.
