Hi,

I haven't played OSRS in for nearly 2 years now, since all my money goes towards my house I thought I'd test the waters to see if anyone wants it.

I'll upload some photos so you can take a look <https://imgur.com/a/tKS1tN6>

Very decent stats, has almost all the quests completed.

Fire cape, wihip, d defender.

Song of the elves complete, desert treasure, monkey madness, dragon slayer etc...

Not sure what these go for so chuck me an offer and if it seems reasonable I'll sell, BTC preferred but will take UK bank transfer.

Thank you :)

$400 is a fair price when looking at other listings.

Stats make it interesting, but there are a lot of considerations nowadays versus a few years ago.
Stats alone don't get an account much anymore.
I'll list a few.

Completed Quests - for a decent offer on a main, you need to be in the 240 QP range via MM2, DS2, Kings Ransom, and all of the requirements.

Completed Diaries - varrock, koured and kebos, and kendarin are pretty important to have completed on a main.

Untradables - skilling outfits such as full graceful, lumberjack, fishing, mining, etc... additionally, avernic defender, elite void, etc.

Infernal - doing it on a main isn't a big deal, but having it done adds anywhere between 50-100 USD to the value.

Offence History - dirty history, such as a ban for botting or macroing significantly drops the value of the account.

Just from what I'm seeing now, you could comfortably get 300 USD. 400 depending on things I listed above. 500 if you can find a whale buyer.

My apologies, I haven't played the game in so long I actually forgot what is most important, thank you for the tips I will add them when I get a chance.

269 Quest points

Most diaries at least medium (will screenshot later)

Full graceful, thieving outfit, will check for others later.

Zero marks against the account

No worries!

First, congrats on the house, I hope everything is going well.

Second, I wasn't trying to disrespect or anything, I was just giving you an idea of what to expect/get some additional photos in so you don't have to do them later.

I sell a lot of accounts off-site so if you have any questions of what to add to the sales for eye candy, etc, just let me know.
