Probably missed many more users, but my mouse is tired.

HF helped me to be exposed to many techniques and subjects which led me to become interested in them and develop myself within these area's.

Going wayback to 2010, mIRC MSN Bots and MSN Freezers!
And the times we had the "Booter" section, miss it.

Good luck everyone!

Joe - February 13, 2022, 8:53 pm

I'll be closing this at around 3 PM EST. I'm going to make a list of all the users with a qualifying post (tagged a member and stated something they love about the site) and I'll use that as the list for the roll by staff. I won't be using the post number because there are too many non-entry posts and I don't want poor webdev77 to have to keep re-rolling.

Good luck to everyone!

Looking forward to seeing the winners of your contest giveaway. Thanks for hosting this Joe

Well, I think I'm gonna be able to make this in before this ends

I have to mention flyingduck as a member I love, iirc he's the first friend I made after finally getting involved on the forum and I wouldn't be where I'm at today if it wasn't for him. So vielen Dank mein deutscher Freund!

Something I love about HackForums is the sense of humor most people on here have, it's one of my favorite things about this site.

jmark7 - February 14, 2022, 2:00 am

I tag [\[mention=5037217\]](#) for being a very skilled & active member.

I really like HF Community. Best place.

Seranaeth - February 14, 2022, 3:48 am

In just before the end apparently and what a great idea. Thank you to bending and Joe for thinking it up and organizing.

Hack Forums was a place I visited on a Whim about 10-12 years ago when I just started getting into the idea of developing my skills on a computer. What I found here was a treasure trove of knowledge like finding the dead sea scrolls. Some of it...."MOST" of it wouldn't be allowed these days and rightly so but it was interesting nonetheless and really opened my eyes into what was possible with just a keyboard. HF still possesses that repository of potential knowledge, though somewhat of a more 'tame' nature these days, so I guess the educational aspect with the multitude of helpful people that belong to this community is what I love most. If I could nominate everyone I would, however, since this is not the case, I suppose I shall nominate Omniscient for absolutely obliterating my very first Ratr HuM less than a day after I received it. He was a good sport about it though and made up for it ?

Thanks for everything you do to keep this community going strong, and thank you to everyone else for contributing. I can only hope to achieve the same level at some point.

Edit: Apparently I don't know how to mention

Joe - February 14, 2022, 12:53 pm

These are the users with qualifying posts (tagged a user and said what they love about the site). I'll be using these numbers for the draw. webdev77 is busy pretending he has a life outside of Hack Forums, so I may need to find someone else to do the rolling.

Good luck to everyone!
