This is an intentional plan to stop me from winning eggs, i will be taking everyone to supreme court.

I shall win them eventuallyYou can't win my ruby ridge madness egg unless you play <3

I named this egg after the ruby ridge massacre - when the ATF & others raided a home up in Idaho boondocks. They shot the dog, which caused the kid to get angry, so he acted up and got killed too.

Then a sniper shot through a window and killed the wife. The man who was actually the target walked away from it all with a dead dog, dead kid, and dead wife. Then he won millions in his lawsuit years later.

The moral of the story is that we shall use his luck to propel you to the top. With my ruby ridge egg you will experience immense personal growth, wealth, and happiness with no family to hold you back.

Buy today ~ Win tomorrow!

/s but buy a ticket or 10
