Hi, there is no maximum number, but we usually accept orders of a maximum of 1k at a time.

It's world mix, very varied.

They are high quality bots, a good deal for the price, I will contact you and show you more details.

So they are loads and they stuck for you? What was the success rate of execution?

I have worked with the OP in the pass and still do and fully vouch for him.

One of the best sellers I have ever seen for years , if you buy lets say 100 bots you will get 100 bots connect to you and not just 10 or 20, that is how hes system works, also you get access to the dashboard to track.

This dude legit.

Bought only small orders but he doesn't care and treats me like any other customer.

Even though I probably annoyed him several times asking him to pause my order and then restart after i refud my file, several times..

super cool dude, awesome value

I ended up buying 300 loads from the user for the equivalence for $12, all was good at first I received a url that showed downloads. I have received 12 downloaded initially but have received none since. OP told me they come in after a couple hours, but the URL he provided is now dead. He hasn't been on for a bit but I'm hoping he can at least communicate a little. Really hoping to resolve so I can leave a proper vouch!

Hello friend, the problem has already been solved, we migrated from the old server to a new one, due to some problems, we are working normally now, sorry for the inconvenience.
