I'm glad you got a laugh out of it ?

This domain is perfect for adult related sites etc.

Juoku - February 3, 2022, 9:16 am

I'd suggest you post it on Afternic, this is a real premium domain, you might find a seller over there, I seriously see some real adult-related gold right here, whoever cops this domain can make it into something seriously profitable.

True, the auction is also just 5$ a year so very inexpensive.

Yes, they do take about 20% from the sale too, but they have quite the audience reach.

I remember the hot girls in the GoDaddy commercials when I was a kid, I always thought it was some kind of adult site or something.

Definitely a great domain for monetizing adult traffic.

- Adult Tube Site
- Membership Site
- Niche site for anal/ass

Just a few ideas you could do that would be extremely profitable.

Currently no offers.

No set BIN - Simply, highest offer takes it.

Honestly, I've no idea about actual value of this.

If you can tell me how much you're ideally looking for this, I'll just let you know if I can match that.

The value would depend on each individuals perception on what they can do with this domain.

Domain appraisal tools online (not always accurate) advising this domain is worth $1,000+

I personally would advise that this domain could make insane profits if used properly.

I'm looking for serious buyers who want to make an offer. (Not lowball $40 offers etc. This domain is definitely worth over $200).

It currently valued at 200, would be a great domain for adult site and monetizing the traffic. Good luck with sale of the domain.
