although i don't believe in the idea behind NFTs but they can definitely make you a lot of money real quick. happy that it turned out well for you :)

Synio - March 13, 2022, 7:47 am
Can you actually withdraw those money? As far as I remember VeVe money don't mean nothing.

uhh, if I'm not mistaken, you can't withdraw your $ on Veve or turn your "gems" into real cash lol. Nice Gem profits though. I had a buddy who picked up a star wars NFT there for and made a ton of profit, but again can't cash out.

Yea bro, to my knowledge, unless VEVE made a way for you to cash out these "gems" very recently, whatever you profit stays in the VEVE app as "gems". There's no way to for example exchange it for USDT, USDC or withdraw.

Now to be fair, VEVE is partnered with Disney and I think people will be able to cash out eventually, but who knows when.

So it is basically a game of getting lucky / trading up for no other purpose then having nice pixels.
