Thread: Lost an old friend, and his mother couldn't handle the loss so her heart stopped too

Palestine - January 31, 2022, 9:09 pm

Lost an old friend of mine from childhood 4 days ago, and just found out his single mother who raised him all by herself since he was born couldn't handle the grief and pain of losing her only family- her only child, so her heart stopped beating today as well.

May God have mercy on them, Rest In Peace Artem & his mother, Inna ??????

Say a prayer for them, may God grant them access to the highest of paradise ameen ???

? my condolences.

While the pain never truly fades. Acceptance and drive will get you through your days.

Hope you are well, and be glad that they no longer feel fear or pain.

May their soul rest in peace. I'll be keeping them in my prayers today.

Zan - January 31, 2022, 10:24 pm

I'm sorry for your loss OP. May they rest in peace.

This is sad to see, and you deal with people on a daily basis as a paramedic. I'm sure they are up in Heaven with God looking down as Guardian Angels now.

Sapple - January 31, 2022, 10:38 pm

I am sorry for your loss OP. Its very tragic. May their soul rest in peace.

SeaTurtle - January 31, 2022, 10:47 pm

May they rest in peace.

Losing a friend is always awful to go through, but I hope you can make it through this okay. good luck

Wow... Very sad I'm sorry to hear this man. Just stay strong and be positive his in a better place. RIP

Recon72 - January 31, 2022, 11:01 pm

Rest In Peace Artem and Inna.

Linux X - February 1, 2022, 5:08 am

That's so sad. The pain is really really big. I can say from personal experience. I hope they are in a better place now!

A parents worst nightmare is to see their own child die.....sorry for your loss OP.

We all bring to God, and to him we shall return.

Sorry for this man.

They are blessed

Luffy_- - February 1, 2022, 6:08 am

Sorry for your loss, my sincere condolences !!

Malwhere? - February 1, 2022, 6:39 am

Sorry for your loss, let's hope wherever they are, they are at peace.

Simon77 - February 1, 2022, 7:07 am

May their soul rest in peace, strength to you as well OP.

This is so sad.

If anyone is wondering how something like this can happen, it's called Takotsubo cardiomyopathy. It's when an extremely emotional or traumatic event triggers a surge of stress hormones. These hormones can put you in short-term heart failure, which can be life-threatening.

It is EXTREMELY rare, but obviously still occurs in some people. Kyrie Eleison, may God have mercy on their souls.

Herbert - February 1, 2022, 9:18 am

That's devastating, my sincerest condolences.

I hope they find eternal peace in the afterlife.

A10247 - February 1, 2022, 9:39 am

Sorry for your loss, I'm sure they're both in a better place.

Eran - February 1, 2022, 10:32 am

This is so heartbreaking :(RiP to both.

We need to value our time with our loved ones more. Tomorrow is truly never promised..

Goku - February 1, 2022, 11:30 am

Condolences my man.

I never wish someone the sorrow she went through.

The Pact - February 1, 2022, 11:35 am

Sorry for your loss. I thought you were going to say the mother committed suicide but no she had a heart attack four days after his death? My father in law had one, one year after my husband died in his 40s. Sorry for your loss. Be careful where you post your photos and memorials because there are some crazy sick people online so you do have to be careful unfortunately.

hackerm0m - February 2, 2022, 10:50 pm

As a mother, I have always said if something happens to my child. You better plan a funeral for 2 because I'm going as well. There's no reason for me to stay on this earth without my child. An absolute nightmare I could never make it a day through.

Sorry for your loss :(

I can feel from the aspect of a parent but are you really a mother on hf?

Yuno - February 4, 2022, 12:01 pm

This is incredibly heartbreaking, my condolences go out to you. <3
