Are you talking about falsely inflating a social media account and trying to sell niche methods to people?

popek122 - January 31, 2022, 11:11 pm

yes have you tried something like this?

Stop doing this as karma dont sleep and you will get back what you give

You can ask Art Flair, James Renouf, Jono "wtf I forgot the name", or this Fergal "Google the last name" of warrior forums for help. For pocket money they'll sell their grandma and do a jv and sell you a crappy pdf and 150 up sells.

The internet is full of those, Tiktok, Instagram, Youtube. It's actually very boring to watch 10 people in a row in TikTok especially Walk and talk the same way, trying to hook people in their shitty schemes. The latest "Goldmine" is the NFT niche. I'm actually sick of it.

Why don't try being legit first?

+ as diablospartan says, karma doesn't sleep
