coffeezilla, penguinz0. have uploaded a video and shed light on something thats been in the dark for a while.

I was personally invested cuz i watched his streams since i was young, i put my blind faith on him, hoping he was different then others. I even got out of my to share this "coin" and promote on hackforums to whitch people rep fucked me but i defended my self and him to give it a chance.

I am ashamed and i deeply apologize for the thread i had made.

I genuinely want to know, why would you blindly put any money to any influencer just because they said it is good or if they made it without doing any research? Especially from a guy like Ice Poseidon who is not a good guy at all and will do literally anything for money.

flyingduck - February 1, 2022, 7:03 am shit happens. deal with it. life goes on.

ep1capple - February 1, 2022, 7:06 am

I'm positive no one here invested in cxcoin besides you.

i did do my research, i wasnt a stupid man just put money. He had a vision, he was transparent, answers all my questions on voice chat, the issue was i put belief on his words.

Why did you think he was special? because he plays video games on camera?

There was plenty of evidence that he was a total douchebag.

A fool and his money they say...

Rahul007rhp - February 1, 2022, 8:29 am

Well , one shouldn't invest blindly before doing anytype of research at all. Invest in fundamental that will surely help you in long run

Hulk - February 1, 2022, 8:58 am

Wait, wasn't this the coin where he explained it like a pyramid scheme? Like people laughed at him on live stream when he was explaining, he was even in voice chat with someone who told him it's a pyramid scheme and he denied it. And I also remember him straight up saying that he will rugpull it if there is $1m for him to gain.

Maskin - February 1, 2022, 9:03 am

I randomly watched his stream months ago and I remember he said he bought a shit ton of MANA/LAND?

This was before the metaverse hype so he should have made huge profits unless he sold, which would explain why he decided to scam people..

Omniscient - February 1, 2022, 9:36 am

Never get your signals from an influencer. I don't care if it's Elon Musk or Tom Cruise.

btw, you're lucky I didn't see that thread at the time

I would have certainly closed it and probably banned/closed your account. And rightfully so because as you see you're basically shilling a scam to members.

False King - February 1, 2022, 9:56 am

How can you not see this is one big scam? I mean, this whole thing basically was a Ponzi scheme created by one of the most stupid motherfuckers on the internet. Why in God's name would you trust your money to someone like that?

In all honesty, everyone who invested in this deserves to lose their money.

There's no reason for this coin to exist. Not a single one. All of this could be done with any other already existing platform or exists already.

No need for this shitty token other than to dump on investors.

Take a look at the roadmap and tell me that you think that's still a legit project:

Aggressive marketing before actually building the product?

Compare it to any other BSC scam coin and you won't find a difference, it's exactly the same. No actual use case which needs its own token, Binance Scam Chain, Deflationary (just why?), Tokenomics sucks

People have been banned for posting threads like yours.
Should've listened to the people in your old thread.

The John McAfee days we're certainly fun but also an awful idea. DYOR as always, especially with dogshit projects such as this.

The Host - February 1, 2022, 6:00 pm

I use to watch his videos. Found his streams entertaining. Haven't watched him for year or 2 now. Guess he fell off

Nullusia - February 1, 2022, 7:12 pm

How much did you lose out of interest? How expensive was it to learn this lesson is what I'm really wondering

1. Fomo

2. People like davinci who made a youtube video in 2013 to buy 1$ worth of bitcoin and no one listened, are now associated to the same thing with influencers - if influencers tell you to buy you buy

3. Most people dont know how to do research, they dont understand crypto, doing rsearch could take days or weeks and until then the price may increase so they have to act fast and blindly buy

Blockonome - February 2, 2022, 1:54 pm

I just do not understand how anyone would put their money into an influencers coin. as sketchy as it gets, because who are they to make that into a real project, simple logic would solve this, but many people fail at this.

fenompls - February 2, 2022, 10:59 pm

Karma is waiting around the corner for Ice Poseidon xVulnerable - February 3, 2022, 3:05 am

The guy is a fucking idiot. He can literally go to jail for this. He is admitting it!

SIM-3205632 - February 3, 2022, 3:14 am

Rookie numbers I did more freggel1234 - February 3, 2022, 12:18 pm

I absolutely loved McAfee and followed him. Not once did I buy a token he recommended. The opposite actually, thought it was all shitcoins he was paid to shill. Doesn't mean I lost respect JM for his decision. You gotta make your money. If people are moronic sheeple then they are.
