Thread: @GMAIL Appraisal - Need Appraisal

crown - February 2, 2022, 11:36 pm

hi hf

I own a gmail, hint to what it is below. Owned it for a few years trying to see what its worth in current market to the right person hint is

(a computer error, more than many)@gmail.com
(err*rs at gmail.com)

please let me know what you'd pay or what it is worth current market in btc/eth

Hmmmm probably couple of hundreds in my opinion.

Only $75-$175 is what I think worth is. Good luck with sales!

Anyone else wanna let me know what fair market value is for this?

If you wait around probably could get $100 but $50 would be a quicker sale.

The problem with OG emails is they get a ton of spam and may be recovered so most people dont bother using it as a main or something.

I used to sell a bunch of OG emails back in the day

I'd say it's around $300. I have some semis that I price a little less then what my appraisal is at. Nice one man Definitely at least a few hundred for this, since Gmail's are really rare and hard to come by now.

I'd also say around this range.
