Hey guys. I'm Majora. I'm 27, and I code. Not very well. I'd like to improve it. I also hope to get decent at E-whoring because I am poor and aiming for a new computer. I'm generally physically unwell. That being said. I'm funny, smart, and kind until someone violates my trust or respect. I game X-box and computer. If you want to know anything at all do feel free to ask me. Thanks for having me ?

Good luck getting your new PC, I just bought one. Now I'm in the hole big-time. Need to earn it back with gambling ?
