It's National Pizza Day! Are you planning to have some pizza today?

What is your favorite place to get a slice or a whole pie?

I miss NY pizza. Here in Vegas a couple decent pizza places but none near my home that are good.

I like Hawaiian Pizza and Meat Lovers. Don't really have a preference on a pizza place though.

Realistically I probably won't end up getting pizza today, but maybe this weekend. Sounds good asf right now nonetheless.

Didn't plan on it, but then again I'm harvesting and trimming my second cannabis plant, I will be left over with some finger hash so I might aswell roll one as a reward and order pizza :D

Now that you mention it, I will probably order a pie tonight after work. There's a local pizzeria right around the corner from my house. They have some of the best wings I've ever had too.
