Thread: BUYING SNAP UNBAN HMU

Bluntt - February 10, 2022, 5:47 pm

Hey, so i got my account permanently locked on snap a couple weeks back and i've been trying to get it unbanned ever since. i payed @NFTea to do the unban, however i got beamed unfortunately so i still need the service done.

Here's a bit about my account/why it got locked:

This is my personal snapchat that i've had for 6+ years now. it had everyone that ive met and thst i know, as well as countless memories. That is literally the only reason i need my account back like i refuse to lose contact with hundreds of ppl

Anyway, my account got banned due to the fact that I posted a picture of weed on my private story and said "lmk" as in to hmu to smoke, but snapchat must've taken this as dealing and perma locked my account.

I can no longer get into any of my other snaps i had either, and if it does let me in, it is only for a second and then i am kicked out and it's locked again. Also, i literally cannot make a new account no matter what, so i'm not sure if i'm device banned or what. Finally, my account is still active w/ a bitmoji and ppl can still snap/text me i just cannot access the account as i am "permanently locked"

Now that you have an overview on my account and situation, please HMU if you can offer this service. I really have a limited budget now that I got scammed by @NFTea, but hmu w/ prices nonetheless!!

Also, only hmu if you are willing to use a middleman or have a crazy B-Rating please, i learned my lesson the hard way on what happens when u go first smfh

Need the same. I will make someone thousands if they can do this.

It isn't exactly possible. I'd have buyers lined around the world.

Good luck mine was recently banned and it banned all my accounts (4) need those done + 10-30 more lol

If you find anyone please lmk. I'll even pay yah to point the right direction haha,

I would be very cautious on who you deal with who can promise such things like this because it is far fetched, but I'm not saying it is impossible. I believe someone would use social engineering to try and get the account reactivated and/or unbanned. Is there not anyway you can request the archive from Snapchat for that particular account through a contact-us page?

<https://s.snapchat.com/en-US/i-need-help> Maybe you can say your account was compromised and you don't know how or why it was banned.

Sadly there is no way to do that once its deleted the support team is pretty much paid to not allow fraud to happen in such a way they do NOT reinstate accounts.

Not like instagram or twitter or other SM accounts that are "unbannable"

i am beyond confused. i was sold this is completely impossible by many ppl on another forum, however i can to HF and made a thread regarding it and A TON of ppl hmu many were people w/ good reputation onsite and a high B-Rating that told me it was very possible to get it back and some even offered to do it for me.

Now though, i am hearing that is not very possible at all so i'm really confused if everyone was jus tryna scam me before or what's happening.

Should i keep trying to find someone or just get a new phone and snap? Irdk what to do rn but i really did have my hopes up bout it being possible to do an unban fr :(( my account never got deleted tho, it's literally just locked so there has to be a way for the team to unlock it.

i feel like they'd follow that protocol if your account is deleted and gone, but i really believe that something can be done to get an account unlocked if it still exists and everything.

i may be wrong but only time will tell i guess!!

On mobile you were banned on go here <https://accounts.snapchat.com/accounts/unlock>

If you can unlock your account then bam, if not it will say "your account is permanently banned"

Cheers
