Reading up on it, seems to be legit, but it is not good money.

Magnus Berntsson Wrote:Ty, been using womplay for a while now.

After testing it. It concludes that less earning over time is a reality. If a user invest real cash in games then a temporary rise is due for wombucks.

There isn't much value of using womplay. I could get more payout in other means.

First week I got 54000 wombuck. Second week 89000 wb. Third week I was down to less than 0.000049 on payout. Even if I played for 3 days overall.

Total value after more than 2 months is 2 US dollars.

Is it worth it. I doubt it. Unless you invest in the games. There isn't anyone that got the jackpot share of 2500 dollar. While one pbtc is valued 24000 dollar. Its unreachable.

Quote is from the post. I guess if you have a wonder of people in on it, you could make a ton of money if you are at the top of inviting people.
