@omniscient@ was right. I was wrong. 5 minutes of research is all it took to realize I was an idiot and Omni himself provided enough links to do so.

CW is not SN. And this is a public declaration that I acknowledge that wholeheartedly. Omni was right.

I acknowledge the whole court case surrounding it was a bullshit publicity stunt. Maybe I read too much bullshit.

Since I want to make this post something besides a jab at you, who do you think is Satoshi? I. Thoroughly convinced that Adam Back is Satoshi.

I know I can make a post not a thread but I thought a whole thread acknowledging it would be better.

Bruh, did you get kicked out of the foundation because of your NFT project or because of this disagreement about Satoshi?

Well, I knew there would be a reason and to be honest, I can only agree with what you said about them. Must be hard not being able to take honest criticism.

child throwing his toys out of the pram. His autism wont let him forget it.
