Thread: [\[Feb\] Weekly / Monthly plans & goals?](#)

r3byte - February 20, 2022, 2:25 am

Good morning, afternoon & evening for some!

Hope you all had a nice & productive week!

Curious to hear what you have planned for the following week & remaining days of month?
I was going to do this thread on the 1st but it slipped my mind!

Me:?

Today I need to fit a new door handle as it somehow snapped?!
Besides from that, I have some web projects to finish this week, whilst drafting a new portfolio for myself.
I'm also working on some NFT platform stuff which the goal is to have in testing phases next month.

How about everyone else? What's your plans/goals?

I got a lot going on for the rest of this month:

Girl coming over to sleep, probably making the relationship official
Going on a long hike with friends
After 1 month of organically growing a tiktok account, I will try to monetize it (CPA)
I had a few more things but I forgot haha. 2022 is gonna be eventful!
