Got an Suggestion for you.

Quote:* Must have at-least 75+ posts & 2 threads minimum by time this draw ends!
In Place of accepting users with random 2 threads which asking for help or asking question on new thread, You can go with users with 2 threads which share stuff on HF.

Just my 2 Cents.

Thoth - March 11, 2022, 1:14 pm

I am submitting an entry into this competition because I have been a very active member of HF for quite some time. Unfortunately, due to a severe health issue (Heart attack) of a close family member, I was unable to be as active as I had been for quite some time. Prior to this family emergency I had won a contest that rewarded me a year of Ub3r, which I was very thankful for and used/was active as possible. I felt that, at the time, I was truly becoming a part of the community. If I were to win this competition/drawing, I feel as if it would help me to begin climbing the ladder back to the status that I had previously worked so hard to achieve. Thank you for your time, and I wish you all the best of luck!
