Thread: Easy Profits - A Fiverr Method for a Fiver - Just \$5 - \$100s per Week

Koyote - February 28, 2022, 5:37 am

Nothing too fancy, but this is a method I've been using for a while now and it makes me some decent side money.

I've noticed other sellers on Fiverr pop up with similar gigs and get the same amount of orders, and it's not appearing to saturate my sales or cause me any problems at all, so I figured I'd sell the method here too.

It won't make you rich by any means, but this makes enough to cover the groceries each week and can definitely be scaled up or improved upon.

It takes a minute or two at most to do, literally nothing more, and then the job is done. Some of the easiest money you'll ever make.

I'll give one vouch copy to an Ub3r user who is active on HF. Please don't spam the thread asking for vouch copies, it's only $5.

an e-book?

Sending you a contract now for the vouch copy, thanks!

Hi,

I have already purchased Fiverr method from you before. Is it the same or different one?

Thanks

Hey, thanks for purchasing the previous one! This is a different method, and probably easier than the prior one in how it's done :)

Cyam - March 1, 2022, 12:17 pm

If you're up for it, I can write a detailed review! I already have some experience with Fiverr so I think I would be a perfect candidate for a vouch copy.

Not sure if you already gave it away - if you did, please ignore this post and good luck with sales.

Can you post your earnings?

Can you post any info in this method?

Do you list a gig and wait for customers?

Is it hard to get customers?

I'm currently awaiting the review from the vouch copy I gave out, but if I don't hear back in the next 12-24 hours I'll definitely take you up on that. Thanks!

I'm waiting for the end of month figure/spreadsheet thing to generate and then I can isolate earnings from this gig in particular. It's a very simple method that uses just one app and the Fiverr marketplace, and honestly takes like a minute or two to complete each simple order. You can list it and wait for customers, or post in related Facebook/Reddit groups and it always converts quite well. Really not hard to get customers at all with this one!

I was fortunate enough to receive a vouch copy and just wanted to leave some honest feed back.

The eBook is constructed and worded in a very easy to follow format. It gives precise and specific instructions with clarity, although no pictures are in the eBook it's still extremely easy to follow and understand.

The method itself is definitely passive income, minimal work would be needed daily to execute this ebook. I reckon about 30 minutes or so to set up, an additional 15-45 minutes a day to maintain. This method won't make you rich, but there's no doubt I could see this being an extra couple hundred bucks a month in income with relatively low effort.

Vouch for TheCuriousCoyote and his Fiverr method. It's worth it for $5.

Hey, thanks so much for the review and the feedback, really appreciate it!

I didn't want to bloat it out with images in case it got confusing, but I may consider adding some more if others find it lacking in that sense. Glad you see the value of the method in how it can be a passive income stream, thanks again!

Sure, this is the last few days with the method. I've done a smaller screenshot as there's other order revenues but they're from a different method altogether so it'd be a bit misleading to include those.

Big orders pulled in with this method over the weekend! Not sure why or if an event triggered it, but had a good couple days doing minor work for decent money. For only $5 start your Fiverr journey and get going!
