Thread: Girl's Fashion Brand Name? LMK!

Vader - March 3, 2022, 9:21 pm

I'm trying to brainstorm ideas for a women's fashion brand. Potentially going to open up a brand on TikTok so I wanted to see what everyone's input was. It is going to resemble shein or romwe. I want the name to be a little more explanatory though.

What would you name a girls fashion brand on TikTok?

So far I have these names, been brainstorming for 20 min or so:

- BabyGal
- ThriftyUSA

Some names I've thought of before but never used:

- StarLightUSA
- BloomShop
- PixieShop ~ used this in 2017, was alright.

Some brands I've seen around:

- PrettyGirlUSA
- GlamBear
- BooHoo
- Papaya
- Rainbow

Keep in mind I have to buy the domain (.co or .com whichever I can get). Also I have to get the user on IG/TikTok. It helps to have the exact username/domain, but I can play around with it & work it out.

Thanks everyone :)

Bloom shop sounds nice to me

I'd personally avoid 'baby' and the use of 'usa' as the baby seems as it's for children (babies) and the 'usa' kinda limits it to being only or solely usa?

You might be right about baby, but I used USA for another brand one time and I had no issues with global orders.

Yea that might be a good idea I'll keep it in mind. I never fully launched a brand with that name. I try to remove the word 'shop' when naming brands now though. Any other word besides shop for women's clothing?

I own the domain: 'LoveFash.com'; (love | fashion)

It's perfect for what you're looking for.

PM me an offer.

dude that sounds like a porn site domain NGL, if someone was making a tiktok type app for porn that would be a great domain. Or if someone was making an only fans type software.

What do you guys think of the name Astral Closet?

He said wait till after I enter a new state of enlightenment with DMT.

OP, don't think of a cringy name. Think of something that rolls off the tongue and is easy to say and remember. Doesn't have to include anything fashion or women-related at all. You can always "for women" or "women line" after the name.
