The Last Kingdom, a drama series about Vikings will be returning to Netflix for its 5th series this coming Wednesday 9th day of March.

I am just excited about this one for I have been waiting for this and now just couple of days and it will be available for viewing ?

Bro for me it's much more better than Vikings and Vikings Valhalla.

I will give it a 10 for I love this series. This is the one that makes me wanna watch The Vikings and Vikings Valhalla and I am starting to love the story about the Saxons, Danes and the early Kingdoms of England.

Super excited! I've loved the series. Started watching all over again this past weekend and seems to be lining up perfectly that I can binge it all the way through!

Indeed. Though I enjoyed what they did do. I really hope they make more like it. I love historical shows!

This is the reason why it makes me love watching The Vikings series and the new Vikings Valhalla.

Yes! Loved that series. Saw Valhalla last week. Hope they make more! I'll take a dozen spinoffs. ???

Somehow it seems an interesting series as well and will just wait for another season hoping it will not take too long.

I just finished it, it had me on the edge of my seat. Some parts I didn't like, but overall it was a great season.

Same here bro I've just finished it the other day and I agree some part isn't that great but still a thumbs up for the whole cast.

Honestly I feel some sort of sadness that this series comes to end but happy to see the ending finally ???

Have you heard anything about them being completely done?

Yea the part before the ending was a constant edge of my seat, but also yelling at the screen.

Yep it's been posted that the season 5 is the final season of this series.

"At the time The Last Kingdom dropped on Netflix, Cornwell had published just 10 books in his The Saxon Stories novel series, meaning Season 5 would be the last."

That's unfortunate. I guess it makes sense based off the ending.

Great series though honestly.

Finally finished it. I hate the chosen antagonist for the early part of the final season. That character should have been killed much sooner. Also the purity line they chose didn't make sense either for that character. The last and final made sense in the larger scheme of things.

Great show! I wish there would be more, but I'm happy with how it went and will always look upon it fondly.

Agreed with that character. Very dragged out and should have ended much sooner.

Awesome season 5 is out.

I am a big fan. I'll argue this is better than GoT. A really well-paced action series with excellent acting, writing, and production.

If you have not yet watched, start now.

Last season of The Last Kingdom is far better than the last season of GoT. GoT had one of the worst last seasons of any series I've watched.

GoT had the VERY WORST last season of any show ever. Even worse than Lost. Was so bad that I don't think I'll ever watch GoT again and if I do, I will simply not watch the last season.

Those bumbling idiot directors who wrote that crap should be blacklisted from ever producing anything ever again. I think HBO should just make a new last season. Let's all pretend it didn't happen.

But glad to hear Last Kingdom ends well. I will probably watch it in a few weeks. Have my plate full now.

It was terrible, all that build up of all the seasons for them to just have the worst last season ever created.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Part that pissed me off the most was the castle defense. Loved how they defended the castle from the outside of it, and sent half their army extremely outnumbered to just kill themselves. Nothing in that season made any sense.

Great series Spoiler don't read if you haven't watched the last 4 seasons, I liked when Alfred was king tbh, he was a good king. After he died I feel like his son is fucking up.

Thats pretty cool bro, will have to rewatch previous season because I forgotten it entirely. This show is too good, better than Vikings imo as Vikings became bad after Ragnar died

Yep bro I totally agree with you, this The Last Kingdom series makes me wanna see more series of it's like.

The Vikings with Ragnar is great but once his time is over it's sucks...only Ivar the Great seems left in good character.
