Thread: How many anime shows have you completed?

Mizari - March 11, 2022, 10:11 am

I partially track mine with MAL, but I know it's over 100 shows I've finished, albeit a lot of them are 12 episodes but some are longer animes like HxH, bleach, Naruto, etc.

If you had to put a number on it, how many have you watched? (Completed)

I'd say mine is in the 100-150 range.

There's so many I've lost count and love stumbling across the names of ones I've seen but forgotten about

I'm at 349 according to mal, but literally just yesterday I went to send a friend a link to a show I've seen and I didn't even have it added to my list.. Mal's database has had quite a few issues with hackers and rogue admins so it's always good to double check things.

I haven't updated my list there in like a year or two. Do you know of any other reliable database that is as extensive as Mal? I wasn't aware it had issues like that.

Issues will likely not exist again as they got bought out by a major Corp. Mal is great ngl, I've even met an IRL girlfriend there and a whole irl community.

That's good. I've been using it for a long time, but I only use it to check upcoming anime and to see how well they're rated, and to catalogue what I've watched. I have yet to delve into the community side of it. Wasn't sure how it would be.

Specifically Yaoi involving robot dolls.

JohanLiebert01 - March 18, 2022, 8:18 pm

I have completed only about 25 shows as of now

actionman007 - March 19, 2022, 3:18 am

Too many. I didn't count.

CryptoExotics - March 21, 2022, 4:38 am

In my whole life probably around 30-40. It sounds like a lot, but to be honest only 10-15 animes crossing my mind and rest of it was something that was on television when I was a kid

SIM-5169646 - March 21, 2022, 7:51 pm

The only anime I watched is naruto and bleach. I would love to hear other ones I should watch.

I only seen like maybe the first 12 to 15 episodes of Naruto then stopped when I had college. I never watched naruto again or any anime.

I-I - March 21, 2022, 9:43 pm

I'm probably only around the 50 mark. I don't watch anime like I used to but I still watch them from time to time.

Sugawara - March 21, 2022, 11:42 pm

Around 40ish. I plan to watch some retros in coming weeks.

hong - March 22, 2022, 7:45 am

Watched over 50 anime so far cytsunny - August 29, 2022, 9:01 am

143 according to MAL, but as sequels are counted as separate anime, I guess it would just be barely over 100 if sequels are not counted separately.

ExpertGuy12 - August 30, 2022, 6:13 am

100+ completed till now. More left

Beherit - August 30, 2022, 9:04 am

According to my MAL, 782. This includes movies, OVAs and specials.

Vip?r - August 31, 2022, 12:48 am

About 300 are completed but a lot is missing. I have a lot of dropped shows.

Tweety is at over 1000 completed 0 drops. No idea how he hasn't dropped a single one.

SIM-3970461 - August 31, 2022, 1:11 pm

Completed 711 according to mal. lol
