Thread: Got bit by a spider

A10247 - March 13, 2022, 3:22 pm

Found what looks like a spider bite on my arm.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Hope I'm not growing a new nipple.

Mizari - March 13, 2022, 3:27 pm

Doesn't look too bad.

Looks more like sting from something with one stinger versus a spider having fangs.

I thought that too but I cant think of anything that would sting me. Maybe the spider was really small?

Luffy-_- - March 13, 2022, 3:32 pm

You might be the next spiderman :)

It could literally be anything. Spiders tend to get blamed a lot for skin reactions when spider bites aren't all that common.

I didn't see it. I noticed the bite after leaving that nuclear insect testing lab.

This is your villain origin story

Nullusia - March 13, 2022, 3:47 pm

This reminds me of the start of a marvel movie

No Bra - March 13, 2022, 3:53 pm

Should we start calling you Peter Parker or Gwen?

x0n - March 13, 2022, 3:54 pm

Oh shiiit this is how it starts guys!

Coronaspider version. Is out now near you!

Komodo - March 13, 2022, 4:04 pm

I'd guess some sort of stinging insect from the only 1 mark in the center.

If a red ring grows larger in the center let me know.

Ibuprofen or Benadryl work well, topical hydrocortisone cream also works well.

?OMEGA? - March 13, 2022, 4:19 pm

I think it could be many things besides a spider that bit you. bed bugs & fleas give those kind of bites aswell.

I doubt it, bed bugs are some of the nasty mother fuckers in existence. You'd have a bunch of much smaller bites from either of these bugs.

Worked in a very homeless area and begbugs and fleas were a normal shift.

Pretty gross, if they ended up at the ER they would pick them off and put them in specimen jars.

Nasty looking buggers running around in those jars.

Hahah da fuck is going on here. I hate insects.

Vitani's Mate - March 13, 2022, 10:05 pm

That sucks man. Spiders are spooky to me.

I have also been bitten by a spider, a red back (Australia) when I was a kid. It sucked. Had to go to hospital.

hotwheels52 - March 14, 2022, 12:44 am

Next step: locate spider and kill with fire. Pls report back op

HEISENPUG - March 14, 2022, 2:17 am

Yuno - March 14, 2022, 6:06 am

DashPHP - March 15, 2022, 10:32 am

This looks like a sting not a bite from a spider. Hope you are doing well.
