Been getting more into Crypto lately, would love to be in a place to learn as much as possible. Willing to contribute however I can.

This is a crew for my liking haha. I'd jump into that with both my feet if you ever needed members.

Best of regards.

OMEGA.

How can your crew be #1 if Motley Crue is already #1, I see flawed logic here. All jokes aside I wish you luck with you crew, my friend.

The green on a green background makes it hard to read...

Also weird that the TOS is to the side.

Anyways, good luck

Been investing a lot of time and money into crypto for the last 2 years, and been a little bit addicted about it.

If you need a member, I'll be here available!

Best of luck with this awesome group, hope to see some nice threads about some good coins to buy.

You'd think with all ur crypto gains, you could afford a nicer thread design

Graphics have been updated, we are going forward with some slight changes and hopefully this is more to your liking.
