Hi,
I was wondering, Is there a service like PortMap, that doesn't delete your account?
I tried NGROK but the ip changes.
Thanks

Ah thanks, Do you mean there is already an answer there or do you mean remake the post there?

You can try this since you can set your IP to static if that is what you're trying to do,

Issue is, My LAN is buggy and when I port forward, it doesn't show as forwarded after I use canyouseeme or any other site,
Thats why I am attempting to get a static NGROK / Portmap alt
