- Paid for the method
- User connected with me through screenshare to show me how to do this "method"
- Says the method requires an investment of $200, but instead made me deposit ~$300 or 200 Euros.
- Lost my entire investment through gambling in less than 10 minutes.
- Said he would redeposit the amount to let me get another shot at it.
- Hasn't deposited the amount, and is not responding now on Discord.
- Confirmed that I was speaking to him on Discord via PM.

?Impossible - March 17, 2022, 3:29 pm

Yeah, you should see some of the things this kid is saying to me right now. It's actually quite hilarious. I'll post an update in here.

lulzcat - March 17, 2022, 3:40 pm

Bad luck mate, as soon as you realised it was gambling-related you should have cut your losses with the investment you made by purchasing the method and not deposited an extra $300 into the platform. The people that have been vouching for the method are part to blame for this bullshit too.

I think there was only one person on his initial thread that mentioned that it was to do with gambling, so good on him for making people aware because the OP should have made that very clear in his initial post.

I just can't fathom sometimes how people are falling for these scheme-like ebooks..

Fair enough, yknow - most of the stuff on here is junk but atleast you get something in hand at the end of the day even when you purchase a shitty eBook...

This guy didn't deliver a method, and on top of that gambled away $300 after giving me this whole thing about how its not contingent on gambling and that there's an actual "exploit"

I'm sorry to hear that man that is a lot of money to me and I would be upset about it too. I hope that these disputes and community alerts being put out on Private Ryan are enough for people not to continue to fall for his schemes.

lulzcat - March 17, 2022, 3:57 pm

I've just watched the video, OP. You sound like a smart dude so it sucks that this happened. I knew it was gambling as I mentioned earlier but I had no idea how dodgy it ACTUALLY was. Jesus christ....

Private Ryan - March 17, 2022, 4:03 pm

This was honestly the longest losing streak I've seen doing this, I actually got amazed. It's nice that he recorded it so we can see it.

How very helpful of you.

Private Ryan - March 17, 2022, 4:12 pm

Technically I admit my mistake here, we didn't followed the strategy.

As you can see he was on 6 battles in a row lost.

What we had to do is do 7 cases. If you watch the video you will see that on the 7th case he had 2 cases advantage over his oponent and he would win if we didn't all ined.

Maybe you should be clear in your initial thread posts that your "methods" involve gambling.

What does this even mean? How does going into another battle turns around the situation? This has nothing to do with an exploit, it's just gambling and adding another battle isn't going to change much. Stacking battles doesn't increase your chances of profit unless you double down every loss..

You also admitted your misstake, so will he get a refund on the deposit (or the whole method)?

I just start a contract with this guy. I'm showing 2 thread against him. I'll freeze everything and wait for admin to fix everything before continue to work with him.

Bullup - March 17, 2022, 5:43 pm

So basically the method is:

Go to hypedrop, create an affiliate account, create multiple other accounts with vpn, gamble until draw or profit on those affiliate accounts, and take out the affiliate earnings, hoping you dont lose like this guy did because that would screw things up.

Right.

Reading this just makes me believe you are either some child, or just insanely uneducated. Gambling is not an "exploit", and your "method" is not profitable. You are a scammer for not delivering on any aspect of what was written in your sales thread, nor the contract and are ripping people out of their money. There's gotta be a voice for the people who are falling victim to your nonsense.

I think OP would have a better chance at buying bytes and flipping versus Stanley in HF Convo than with your method after I watched the video I am just shocked. I am even more shocked that he told you to just go all in with $105 euros at the end

I rather think you are the one facing the consequences right now, due to the massive amount in customers you will lose on this, but none the less, gambling is not a real money making method. It is based on pure luck and nothing else, so your "method" is far from bullet proof.

Yes bratan, I lost a lot of potential customers (even people who I have contract with and made money decline to pay me). So we're even with the guy. In fact I lost only potential sales, he lost real money so Im happy.

No. You do not get it, you should pay OP his money back, as you clearly just wasted his money. You made the mistake, hence, this is the reason you will never be able to start a real business, because you think it is better to steal a low amount of money, instead of admitting to your mistake, improve and then earn more money based on the fact that you did your customers right and kept to your promises.

You are the one in the wrong here. I am sure OP will get over his loss, however, you will never recover from this on HF at least.

You all blame me but look it from my side.

I go afk for 1h since op told me he is busy.

Op starts a deal dispute against me during this 1h.

Customers I had contract with and made money with my method decline to pay me what I'm owed. Why should I pay OP when he fucks me up?

If you made me pay you $500 to you and then to make another investment of $300 and you then made me lose that within a day, I would be pretty angry with you too, based on what you had promised me.

He did not F you up, you F'ed him up and then went AFK pretending everything was gucci, which would personally just piss me off more.

The fact that you even think you are right, shows me even more why you are never going to have your own successful business.

I like how you're just commenting and defending yourself with anything that's not related to the problem here. It seems like you're really not grasping anything of this properly. If you really think you're not at fault, there's honestly something wrong with you.

(Mar 18, 2022 08:11 AM)Private Ryan Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Ofcourse you will say you are not russian ? Well, it is quite the fact that I am not Russian. If you do not believe that, all you have to do is to go back to my 1st thread on HF. However, since you are a person who speaks before researching what is right and wrong, I am pretty sure, you cannot be believed in anything you talk about.

Which even further proves, that a guy like you, is unwise to do business with and hence why you need to go to scamming, in order to make an income.

Kanye - March 18, 2022, 8:22 am

These gambling methods are ridiculous. Lost almost $1500 a few months back because someone sold me a gambling related method. Gambling related methods shouldn't be allowed on the forum.

Also this moneymo guy was someone who bought the method that I was scammed in (I went to him asking how the method was going for him), so it's kinda suspicious that he's one of the members that bought the gambling related method I was scammed in, vouched for it, and the Disputed Member here is asking you to go to moneymo to see how his experience was using this hypedrop method.

Just seems like some big scheme of someone creating accounts, making fake vouches, selling for hundreds of dollars, and repeating.
