Thread: Thor VS Eddie

So tomorrow is the big boxing match between Thor and Eddie, 2 World Strongest Man champions with insane strength, who do you think is going to win?

I personally think Eddie will take the win but it will be a brutal boxing match overall.

The match is supposedly going to be completely free to watch on Segi TV (Legally) because even Eddie posted the free to watch link on his youtube channel in a video description.

Sometimes I watch UFC fights with my friends on Saturday nights, but this is going to be awesome. Thanks for heads-up OP. I definitely got Thor on this one.

Well Thor won. Fight was not anywhere near as brutal as I thought it would be but there was still some pretty damn hard hits from both of them, both had clean knock downs but I think Eddie tried too hard in the beginning and wasted a lot of his energy. And Thor had some better defense then I thought.

Yeah I watched the fight. Those haymakers Eddie Hall was throwing looked insane to say the least, but they drained him quickly and left him open. I agree; Thor fought more composed and fought better all around.

When I first saw this thread, I thought it was Thor vs. Eddie Brock (Venom). This is awkward.
