Description

We are a group of like-minded individuals working together to achieve a common goal. Although our group is new here on HF, our members are not. We are among the best advertisers and monetizers in HackForums history. However, this group is not only focused on making money or becoming a tycoon. We put a particular focus on enhancing the community, hosting giveaways, helping others, and bringing quality content to the forum. Revenge will focus on various topics such as Gaming, Marketing, and even Crypto discussions. The topics aren't limited to just those as Revolution is open to any and all discussions. If you're looking for a relaxing and laid back group, and not worry about having to put effort into a project for the group that will probably never be used then this is it. Join the Revolution, come make new friends and just have a great time.

I understand $25 may be a lot to you due to your unfortunate financial circumstances, however most consider it a small payment. I have no plans to sell the group.

$25 for a lifetime spot in the group or until it is sold and rebranded? Seems like a solid deal for a bad ass userbar and name color.

The only thing I'll say is: atleast the buy-in seems semi reasonable.

But I'm assuming this just turns into a circle jerk like the other projects little Zeus gets near.

This is a very good price even if it's just for the graphics, as long the group sticks around for at least a few months.

Posting here to return when I have the extra funds for this

This looks pretty sick man. I have to say these might be my favorite UB graphics I've seen to date. With the stars to I'm at like 75% erect right now.

Great price for a group entry I sold 150+ spots for $100 each so seeing its low it is a great deal for that cheap will be good to see some new people in the group!

I may have to lob you a buy-in, good graphics, and group color.
