Thread: Enable PMs - Verified Purchasers

Suggestion: allow verified buyers on sale threads to be able to private message (and or convo) the original poster.

Could be a perk to V3ndor (OP).

Example:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6183325&pid=61365829#pid61365829>

I don't do any buying or selling, but i do glance at sale threads. I've seen a countless number of posts that reply back they can't pm (or convo?) and have to wait for reply.

Dunno if new users can use convo or not, so that's why I'm suggestions allowing PMs for verified purchasers.

(I thought it was 25 posts)

Makes this suggestion one of the lowest priority asks but maybe some V3ndors would like this. Idk

The amount of spam related to earning those first 10 posts might be alleviated by this improvement. I would drop the idea of offering it on a per thread basis, just allow communication between two users with an established contract.

Dropped. Wasn't a fan of the idea from the start..
