Thread: How much time do you spend posting on HF each day?

Doc - March 31, 2022, 11:52 am

Even before I started getting so preoccupied with other things I never spent all that much time posting on here except when I see one or two threads that pique my interest, all in all I think the most time I might spend on HF actually posting in a day is maybe an hour altogether, but that's rare.

How much time do you guys generally spend each day posting on HF?

hotwheels52 - March 31, 2022, 11:52 am

Between an hour or two a day.

It has already become a habit of mine at the moment to open up HF when I turn my PC on. And most of the time I have at least 1 tab open for it. Actively I maybe lurk an hour or two daily?

Depends on the time. Have had periods where I didn't open up HF in weeks or months, have had times where I spend 6+ hours on HF a day.

Posting per day I spend about 30 seconds to 30 minutes. I usually just do my check-in. Some days I will browse the lounge. I usually keep HF open on a side monitor though with the hack game open.

Only when I have something of value to add, otherwise I'll just browse the forum every so often in very specific sections.

A few seconds, I don't got much to say.

Senno - March 31, 2022, 5:00 pm

About 1-2 hours a day here. I mostly active on twitter and FB for getting news updates.

Komodo - March 31, 2022, 5:25 pm

I come online anytime [mention=5037217] is online.

Yin Yang - March 31, 2022, 5:38 pm

Not as much as I was before. I think during the first wave of covid in 2020, I was spending a couple hrs a day.

Taking my name I've been called for years, I'm okay with that.
But I'll Will Smith your ass if you ever talk about my husband [mention=5037217] like that again.

Not much I was busy with other stuff

Stepdad - March 31, 2022, 8:25 pm

Used to work from home and manage my side-hustle at the same time, so I'd always have HF up on another monitor. Not so much nowadays.

Vader - March 31, 2022, 8:34 pm an hour, some days I'll spend more time but not normally. I think its kind of a distraction though, unless you're reaching out and really trying to learn.

?nxy - March 31, 2022, 10:59 pm

I used to spend my entire day on here, kindly posting. I'm returning.

Excellentum - April 1, 2022, 1:36 am

Depends on how much free time I have. Lately, I have more so I am spending the most of it here! I really like this place and I enjoy chatting with people and lurk for some interesting information!

DashPHP - April 1, 2022, 3:01 am

I like to take quick breaks frequently so I quickly boot up HF, check the lounge and some other sections and then back to work :D

Luffy_- - April 1, 2022, 3:24 am

I was littery active all day when i was chasing the lounge head award, now it depends but I'm not spending much time

Yanix - April 1, 2022, 4:11 am

Hack Forum tab is always open on my computer even on my busy days. Just checking it out once in a while and post whenever I got time.

I spend at least an hour throughout the day on HF, regardless of whether I post or not. Some days that is spread over the course of the entire day. Others I am more active, and spend that much time here all at once. Just depends on what I am doing, and what's going on here.

Actively posting, though: much less. Like I said, I can go days without posting. And then the following day, make 20 posts.

Cap - April 1, 2022, 3:51 pm

It's hard to say. I like to be on as often and possible and stay active.

Mac Miller - April 6, 2022, 8:43 am

At least a few hours or more

FalseBanned - April 16, 2022, 6:26 pm

I spent not much time here only if i need something ghostboy - April 16, 2022, 6:30 pm

Was just recently unbanned, but before I believe I was getting 10-15 posts a day.

Snoopti - April 25, 2022, 6:56 pm

Like over 2-3hours depends from the days
