Thread: 30\$ crypto giveaway| Ending on 15th April

Velikiburek - April 4, 2022, 6:31 am

Hey guys, I haven't been able to participate as much as I wanted to, but I have been lurking for a while, and I love everything about this community, so I decided to give back to it (not much, but it's honest?)

To enter:

Comment a number in ascending order, meaning if the first reply is "1", you are going to take "2," etc...

Popularity is not needed, although it's appreciated ?

No double entries

The winner will be chosen by random number generator on the evening of 15th April, GMT. If needed, the pulling will be recorded for transparency.

I wish all the community good luck and good fun!

DashPHP - April 4, 2022, 6:32 am

I'll start the train!

Deany - April 4, 2022, 6:34 am

You know there's no need to comment the number because it shows on the 'share post' icon. (the orange icon to the right of the post) just a tip XD

Anyway, here's #2
thanks for hosting!
