I am looking for someone with good success on the Sportsbook that maybe would be interested in sharing some suggestions for upcoming matches to a newbie.

Oklahoma City is a guaranteed loss against Utah in a couple of hours.
4th worst in country, good players are injured.

Yep, plus Jazz just beat the Grizzlies which is a game I put 100k on.

If it were me that's where I'd put my bet, but if you lose it's not on me haha.

I honestly admit that I have never had the opportunity to try it. However, there will probably be a group of lucky people on the forum?

Nope, currently down 120k. I don't even have bad picks, sometimes OP teams lose and "shit happens" indeed. ?
